Pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association, each share has one vote, except for own shares that have no vote under the law.

2. The right to be informed and availability of materials for the General Meeting

At the General Meeting, shareholders may exercise their right to be informed from Article 305(1) of the Slovenian Companies Act.

The materials for the General Meeting are available to the shareholders for inspection upon prior appointment by telephone on 03/427 6104 in the secretariat of the Legal Department each working day from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, from the day of publication of the convocation notice of the General Meeting until the day of the General Meeting.

The agenda with the draft resolutions, the grounds for the resolutions as well as other materials are published in the stock exchange information system (SEO-net) and available on the company's website www.cinkarna.si.

Detailed information on the rights of shareholders referred to in Article 298(1), Article 300(1), Article 301, and Article 305 of the Slovenian Companies Act are available on the company's website www.cinkarna.si as well as in the stock exchange information system SEO-net as a part of materials for the convocation of the General Meeting.

The convocation of the General Meeting shall also be published on the AJPES portal.

3. Supplementation of the agenda

The shareholders whose total shares amount to one-twentieth of the share capital may request an additional item on the agenda after the announcement of the convocation of the General Meeting. The request must be accompanied by a written draft resolution to be decided on by the General Meeting, or an explanation of the agenda item, if the General Meeting should fail to adopt a resolution on an individual item. The request shall be sent to the Company by registered post no later than 7 days after the publication of this convocation notice to the address Cinkarna Celje, d.d., Kidričeva ul. 26, 3000 Celje, Legal Department, or by e-mail to the address: skupscina@cinkarna.si. In the case of electronic submission, the supplementation of the agenda shall be submitted in a scanned copy as an attachment and shall include a handwritten or qualified electronic signature of the natural person or, in case of a legal entity, a handwritten or qualified electronic signature of a representative and a stamp of the legal entity, if any. The Company has the right to verify the identity of the shareholder or the mandator who submits the request or the proposal by electronic means, as well as the authenticity of their signature.

The clean copy of the agenda will be published in accordance with Article 298 of the Slovenian Companies Act.

4. Proposals of the shareholders

The counterproposals of the shareholders to individual items of the agenda, which will be grounded and sent within 7 days after the publication of this convocation notice by registered mail to the address Cinkarna Celje, d.d., Kidričeva ul. 26, 3000 Celje, Legal Department, or to the electronic address: skupscina@cinkarna.si, will be published in accordance with Article 300 of the Slovenian Companies Act. In the case of electronic submission, the proposals shall be submitted in a scanned copy as an attachment and shall include a handwritten or qualified electronic signature of the natural person or, in case of a legal entity, a handwritten or qualified electronic signature of a representative and a stamp of the legal entity, if any. The Company has the right to verify the identity of the shareholder or the mandator who submits the request or the proposal by electronic means, as well as the authenticity of their signature.

5. Terms and conditions for the attendance at the General Meeting and the exercise of the voting right

The right to attend the General Meeting and the voting right is held only by the shareholders who have, personally or through a proxy in writing, registered their attendance at the General Meeting to the Management Board no later than by the end of the fourth day prior to the General Meeting, i.e. until and including 9 February 2024, and are registered as holders of shares in the central register of book-entry securities at the end of the seventh day prior to the General Meeting, i.e. on 6 February 2024 (cut-off date). If an intermediary who is not the final shareholder is entered as a holder of shares in the central register, the shareholder may exercise the voting right based on the proof referred to in the second paragraph of Article 235(č) of the Slovenian Companies Act, which shows who the final shareholder is on the cut-off date. The registration shall be sent by registered mail to the address CINKARNA Celje, d.d., Pravna služba - za skupščino, Kidričeva ulica 26, 3000 Celje. The registration to the General Meeting cannot be made by electronic means. Only registrations containing original signatures of the shareholders, representatives or proxies will be valid and taken into account. The Company will also consider as valid those registrations that are received through the KDD – Centralna klirinško depotna družba d.o.o. in a standardised form and that have been previously received by the KDD through the intermediation chain. The registration form is available on the company's website www.cinkarna.si.

Each shareholder with the right to attend the General Meeting may authorise a proxy to register the attendance at the General Meeting, to attend the General Meeting and to exercise their voting rights at the General Meeting on the shareholder's behalf. The authorisation shall be made in writing and shall be submitted to the Company for keeping. The form for registration, attendance and exercise of voting right through the proxy is available on the company's website www.cinkarna.si. If the registration to the General Meeting has been sent in the original and contains the signature of the shareholder, it is sufficient that the authorisation is submitted to the Company by electronic mail to the address: skupscina@cinkarna.si, in a scanned copy as an attachment and shall include a handwritten or qualified electronic signature of the natural person or, in case of a legal entity, a handwritten or qualified electronic signature of a representative and a stamp of the legal entity, if any. The Company has the right to verify the identity of the shareholder or the mandator who submits the authorisation by electronic means, as well as the authenticity of their signature. Shareholders may revoke their authorisation at any time up to the date of the General Meeting in the same manner as it was conferred.

The intermediary may exercise or delegate the exercise of voting right for the shares, which do not belong to them only if they were authorised to do so in writing. The intermediary shall keep the authorisation in such a manner so as to ensure its verification. The authorisation may be conferred to an individual intermediary and may be revoked at any time. The intermediary may only authorise persons other than their employees to exercise the authorisation if this is explicitly permitted by the authorisation. If the intermediary exercises the voting right on the shareholder's behalf on the basis of authorisation, the instrument of authorisation shall be submitted to and kept by the Company. The intermediary shall call upon the shareholder to give them instructions for the exercise of the voting right and shall warn them that if the shareholder does not give the intermediary the instructions for the exercise of the voting right, the intermediary will exercise the voting right on the basis of their own proposals communicated to the shareholder, unless the intermediary can assume that the shareholder would have approved of their different decision if they had known the factual situation. The same rules as those set out in this paragraph, shall apply mutatis mutandis to the holders of fiduciary accounts in respect of shares that do not belong to them, to voting advisers and to other persons exercising the voting right as their activity on the shareholder's behalf by means of authorisation.

Participants are kindly asked to register at the reception desk of the General Meeting at least 10-15 minutes prior to the meeting to confirm their attendance and collect their voting machines by signing the list of attending shareholders. Upon registration, the registered participant must, on request, identify himself/herself by presenting an identity document, written authorisation, and a legal representative with an extract from the business court register or other relevant documents from which the right of representation derives.
